2. NHS England and the CCG have entered into the Delegation Agreement that sets out the detailed arrangements for how the CCG will exercise its delegated authority.
3. Even though the exercise of the functions passes to the CCG the liability for the exercise of any of its functions remains with NHS England.
4. In exercising its functions (including those delegated to it) the CCG must comply with the statutory duties set out in the NHS Act and/or any directions made by NHS England or by the Secretary of State and must enable and assist NHS England to meet its corresponding duties.

Commencement

5. This Delegation, and any terms and conditions associated with the Delegation, take effect from 1 April 2020.
6. NHS England may by notice in writing delegate additional functions in respect of primary medical services to the CCG. At midnight on such date as the notice will specify, such functions will be Delegated Functions and will no longer be Reserved Functions.

Role of the CCG

7. The CCG will exercise the primary medical care commissioning functions of NHS England as set out in Schedule 1 to this Delegation and on which further detail is contained in the Delegation Agreement.
8. NHS England will exercise its functions relating to primary medical services other than the Delegated Functions set out in Schedule 1 including but not limited to those set out in Schedule 2 to this Delegation and as set out in the Delegation Agreement.

Exercise of delegated authority

9. The CCG must establish a committee to exercise its delegated functions in accordance with the CCG's constitution and the committee's terms of reference. The structure and operation of the committee must take into account guidance issued by NHS England. This committee will make the decisions on the exercise of the delegated functions.
10. The CCG may otherwise determine the arrangements for the exercise of its delegated functions, provided that they are in accordance with the statutory framework (including Schedule 1A of the NHS Act) and with the CCG's Constitution.

Such ratification will take the form of NHS England considering the issue and decision made by the CCG and then making its own decision. This ratification process will then make the said decision one which NHS England has made. In any event ratification shall not extend to those actions or decisions that are of themselves not capable of being delegated by NHS England to the CCG.
